

I would like to express my support for Indiana's current telephone privacy law. I understand that The CBA is challenging the current Indian law and attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. I have been so pleased with the current law. No longer do I have to dread answering my telephone. Please don't weaken the current law. Thank you.
Faith Dooge